1 CONVENTION D'ACCÈS DES CAMIONS AUX TERMINAUX

Les présentes, il est entendu et convenu que l'accès des sociétés de camionnage aux terminaux et Racine de la Société Terminaux Montréal Gateway (individuellement, le « terminal » et collectivement, les « terminaux ») est assujéti aux modalités ci-dessous.

- 1) « STMG » s'entend de la Société Terminaux Montréal Gateway.
- 2) « Société de camionnage » s'entend, notamment, de tout entrepreneur de camionnage ou entrepreneur de transport routier et de ses employés, conducteurs, sous-traitants indépendants et volontaires-remorqueurs.
- 3) « Unité de transport » s'entend d'un conteneur standard ou d'une remorque, d'un conteneur plate-forme empilable, d'un réservoir, d'une remorque Maif, d'un conteneur à rotelles et rayons rotatifs (RR), d'un wagon ou de toute autre unité de chargement constituée expressément pour le transport terrestre, maritime ou aérien de marchandises.
- 4) Il est entendu et convenu que chaque unité de transport plein livrée ou ramassée dans les terminaux est assujéti à des frais de 35 $, que STMG facture à la société de camionnage concernée et que celle-ci seule doit payer. STMG se réserve le droit de rajuster ces frais.
- 5) Les sociétés de camionnage qui refusent de régler les factures de STMG dans les meilleurs délais se verraient refuser l'accès aux terminaux jusqu'à ce que tous les comptes aient été réglés.
- 6) Les terminaux conviennent de fournir leurs services en faisant preuve d'un niveau raisonnable de soin, de diligence, de compétence et de jugement.
- 7) Les sociétés de camionnage sont considérées comme compétentes et raisonnablement renseignées à l'égard des questions concernant l'exercice de leurs activités, y compris aux fins de l'acceptation des présentes modalités et de toutes les questions connexes.
- 8) Les sociétés de camionnage s'engagent à embaucher des conducteurs, des sous-traitants indépendants et des volontaires-remorqueurs expérimentés et compétents, qui arriveront ou feront adéquatement et suffisamment les marchandises ou seront à ce qu'ils soient adéquatement et suffisamment armés ou habillés sur les conteneurs plate-forme empilables ou autres conteneurs, remorques Maif, remorques à rotelles ou autres remorques ou tout autre matériel, conformément, en tout temps, aux normes les plus élevées et aux lois et règlements fédéraux, provinciaux et d'État.
- 9) Les sociétés de camionnage acceptent de maintenir leurs informations de partage avec STMG à jour en tout moment. Ce qui précède comprend les informations de registre et les listes de chauffeurs de camions actifs, qui sont gérées via le portail Web de STMG, comme spécifié dans le Guide des Sociétés de Camionnage (section 2.3).
- 10) Sauf dans des cas exceptionnels convenus d'avance et par écrit, la livraison et la collecte d'unités de transport dans les terminaux doivent se faire entre 0900 et 2300 du lundi au vendredi (jours fériés exclus).
- 11) Les sociétés de camionnage s'engagent irrévocablement à respecter en tout temps les dispositions du Guide des Sociétés de Camionnage et du Guide du Camionneur de STMG, dont elles acceptent réception par les présentes, ainsi que les présentes modalités.

4. TRUCKING TERMINAL ACCESS AGREEMENT

It is hereby understood and agreed that access by Trucking Companies to Montreal Gateway Terminals, Cast Terminal, Racine Terminal (individually and collectively the "Terminal(s)") shall be subject to the following standard terms and conditions:

- 1) "MGTP" means Montreal Gateway Terminals Partnership;
- 2) "Trucking Company(ies)" means without limitation any and all carters, hauliers, road carriers and/or their employees, drivers, independent contractors and/or brokers;
- 3) "Transport Unit(s)" means containers, trailers, flat racks, tank and other standard containers, mafis, tilts, railroad cars, tanks, or any other unit load device specifically constructed for the carriage of goods by land, sea or air.
- 4) It is understood and agreed that each laden Transport Unit moving in and out of the Terminal(s) will be subject to a fee of $37 to be invoiced to and paid exclusively by the Trucking Company effecting the carriage. The fee could be subject to adjustment.
- 5) Trucking Companies that refuse to promptly satisfy invoices for this service will be denied access to the Terminal(s) until all accounts have been settled.
- 6) The Terminals shall carry out services within a reasonable degree of care, diligence, skill and judgement.
- 7) Trucking Companies shall be deemed to be competent and to have reasonable knowledge of matters affecting the conduct of business, including agreement to and/or acceptance of these Conditions and all matters relating thereto;
- 8) Trucking Companies warrant that they shall engage experienced and competent drivers, independent contractors and/or brokers who will undertake and/or ensure proper and sufficient lashing and/or securing of goods upon flat rack and any other containers, mafis, flatbed and any other trailers and/or other pieces of equipment, always in accordance with the highest standards and in compliance with Federal, Provincial and State laws and regulations
- 9) Trucking Companies agree to maintain their sponsorship information with MGTP current at all times. The aforementioned includes the registry information and active truck driver listings, which is maintained via MGTP's web portal as specified in the Trucking Companies Handbook (article 2.8).
- 10) Save in exceptional circumstances to be agreed in writing in advance, delivery and collection of Transport Units to and from the Terminal(s) may be effected between 0600 and 2300 hours Monday through Friday (statutory holidays excluded).
- 11) Trucking Companies undertake irrevocably to abide at all times by the provisions of the MGTP's Trucking Companies' Handbook and Truck Driver's Handbook, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, as well as these terms and conditions as if set forth therein;

As designated signatory to the below mentioned Trucking Company, I declare having received and reviewed the "Trucking Terminal Access agreement".

I understand these instructions and agree to comply with all terms of this agreement.
